HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA'S PRIVATE SECRETARIAT.

A-5

Orders.	Notes.

Pay and easements of the Private Secretary to His Highness the Maharaja.

1. Sir Evan (then Mr.) Maconochie of the I.C.S. was appointed Private Secretary on a consolidated pay of ₨ 2,000/- plus exchange compensation allowance and leave and pension contribution. He was provided with a furnished house free and given a carriage. He joined the Mysore service on 1st June 1902. From the 1st January 1907 his pay was raised to ₨ 2,250/- the easements referred to above being continued.

2. Mr. R.H.Campbell of the I.C.S. was appointed Private Secretary from the 30th March 1909 on a graded salary of ₨ 2,500-100-3,000 plus exchange compensation allowance and pension and leave contributions and was given furnished houses ~~in Mysore~~, Bangalore and Ootacamund and a carriage free. In September 1912 when the Government of India refused to further extend the loan of his services, he elected to retire from the I.C.S. and continue as Private Secretary. He was given the same graded salary and easements that were first sanctioned to him, but the free carriage was withdrawn from 1st April 1913 when his pay became 2,900/-

3. On the termination of the appointment of Mr. Campbell and when Sir Mirza (then Mr.) Ismail was appointed as Private Secretary the pay of the post was fixed at ₨ 2,000/- p.m. with free furnished houses at Mysore, Bangalore and Ootacamund. The Private Secretary was also given the rank and status of a Member of Council.

The same pay and amenities have been given to the successors in office, Sir Charles Todhunter and [redacted] Mr. T. Thumboo Chetty.

His Highness has recently been pleased to accord a special rank to the present Private Secretary and to place him below the Dewan and above the Chief Justice in the Durbar Order of Precedence.
